ICFA Conference 2007

Melbourne, October 2-5.

At last registrations are open! This conference has been months in planning but now it's all coming together. Check out the program from here:

The ICFA 2007 Conference is based on the theme "Creating the Future ... Today".

Our vision is to inspire the conference community to take action - from the start of the conference - to think BIG and use our skills to address BIG issues such as sustainable resources, social inequalities, religious disharmony.

In short, the ICFA 2007 Conference will be a call to action for coaches to make a difference in the world.

Even if you aren't a coach, you or your organisation might be interested in the Pre-Conference program on October 2nd, where the morning program has been designed for corporate people interested in the value of coaching for business. From the weblink above you can read about the speakers and their presentations.

The ICFA 2007 Conference in Melbourne will be a celebration for all those who are passionate about coaching - an opportunity to:

- cheer, challenge and co-create the profession.
